

Classification of mixed-characteristic local shtukas

Johannes Anschütz (University of Bonn)

In this talk I want to present the definition of a mixed-characteristic local shtukas due to Scholze and discuss how they can be interpreted in terms of modifications on the Fargues-Fontaine curve. This leads to the question of classifying torsors under some reductive group over the Fargues-Fontaine curve.